Dear Parents/Guardians,

On April 25th, 2022, the Graduation Committee held a Grade 12 assembly to relay important dates and information to our 2022 graduates. We are so proud of their achievements in getting to this monumental moment. In order to keep you informed we would like to share some important dates and information with you so you have ample time to make the appropriate arrangements. Please know that all information and updates will be found on the Cardinal Ambrozic website as well as the Graduation Google Classroom to which your child has access. On the Google Classroom, your graduate will find information around grad gown ordering, valedictorian application process and other important details.

Please review the following items and mark them in your calendars.
