Fundraising ideas to be brainstormed in the new year.

Christmas food drive is currently running. Our Thanksgiving food drive was very successful.

Rosary Apostolate is next Wednesday December 15th.

Student mental health and well-being is a focus for us as a staff. X-Movement will be coming into our school to deliver their programming. January will be our first session. It will run until June. Resources can be incorporated into our classrooms.

Virtual announcements will incorporate the X-Movement portal.

Spirit Weeks occurred in October, November, and our December spirit week will occur next week. Language to reflect our commitment to equity and to respect the diversity of our community.

Treaty recognition week was the week of November 1st.

Picture Day occurred on November 16th (retakes to occur in March 2022)

We will continue to recruit lunch duty monitors.

Monthly newsletter will continue to be sent through the SMORE and will continue to be virtual. A section of the newsletter can be dedicated to the council.

Re-organization is possible in February due to the possible switch of learning modules.

Students will be provided with rapid test kits. One kit has 5 tests and it will be sent over the Christmas break.

More information to follow from the Board regarding student screening after the holiday break.
