Dear God, we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is part of the Treaty Lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. We acknowledge and express gratitude to the Mississauga's of the Credit First Nation of the Anishinaabek Peoples who continue to share their ancestral lands with us.

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

A reading from Second Book of Timothy

"Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us." (2 Timothy 1:6-8)

We have many faith traditions in our school. I also know that as we get older, we may hide from the faith handed down to us from our families even to the point in abandoning faith in God completely. But today, St. Paul reminds us that we are not to be ashamed of our relationship with God. In fact, he encourages the faithful to grow in wisdom and wonder of God. Faith in God is not something stagnate, it must grow through prayer and experience, so choose to remain in communion with the Lord. Yes, we will not agree in matters of faith and social causes, even in intent, but if we do so in faith and trust in the Lord, dialogue can occur as we each find a way to do the will of God.

I pray those feeling that their faith tradition has been misrepresented in all forms of media, to hold fast to the faith given to you. Take this as opportunity to learn about your faith and see the beauty and truth it has to offer the world and the guides needed to create a world where we can live together and journey towards the ultimate goal--returning to God. For peace in Ukraine. I pray you remember that of course may the word of Jesus at the Ascension, resound in your heart and lips, "remember I am with you always till the end of days. Amen. In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.
