DAILY REFLECTION

Dear God, we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is part of the Treaty Lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. We acknowledge and express gratitude to the Mississauga's of the Credit First Nation of the Anishinaabek Peoples who continue to share their ancestral lands with us.

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

A reading from the Book of Psalms

“For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.”

Some of you have experienced having Cancer or watching someone battle with it. In the last eight years, between my sister and I, we have driven our parents to every doctor's appointment, blood test, mammograms, surgery, cheomo treatment, and radiation therapy plus five months in the IC. As well as embracing the routine of living with the unknown as treatments are meant to decrease tumor growth, spread of cancer, in the hopes of eradicating it. A diagnosis of cancer and its treatment, changes you, as it should. See, as only a spectator to one who battles with cancer, you notice one distinct thing, you see the difference between people who have faith in God and do not. My parents, after the initial shock of diagnosis, have always had a faith in Christ, but one which became more visible and louder with their diagnosis. With every person, they encountered since, exemplified what it means to believe God made you, Christ died for you, and through the Holy Spirit gives you wisdom and courage to face the unknown. To embrace the truth that regardless of age or health, and everything else, every human being is wonderfully made, whose life must remain in praise to and communion with the Lord.

May we who prepare for the Terry Fox walkathon remember those whom we walk for as well as knowing that whatever monies we raise may give another family hope and courage to face the unknown. In our efforts, may we continue to grow in faith in the Lord, knowing that each of us is wonderfully made and whose lives must be oriented towards the Creator of all things, the Almighty God. For peace in Ukraine. I pray you remember that of course may the word of Jesus at the Ascension, resound in your heart and lips, "remember I am with you always till the end of days. Amen. In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.
