DAILY REFLECTION

Dear God, we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is part of the Treaty Lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. We acknowledge and express gratitude to the Mississauga's of the Credit First Nation of the Anishinaabek Peoples who continue to share their ancestral lands with us.

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians

“With all wisdom and insight God has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.”

In the Christian tradition, we believe through Christ's life, death, and resurrection, we have our path to God laid out before us. Most Christians believe they are on this path, but some don't even realize they have either hit a road block or turned the other way. They forget that to be a Christian is a daily choice.

Like anything we do in this world, we have choices. We choose to get up and come to school or we choose to leave our lunch garbage on the lunch tables or we do not. Why is this important for us today? To believe in God is a choice. A choice which leads to how we live our life. We don't think about it much, but if you were to really take a few minutes each day and asked yourself about whom you believe in, will influence how you see the word and how to live yourself. What do I mean?

Let's say you believe God is merciful. Good, but how have you chosen to be merciful to someone? Let's say you proclaim God is love. Again, good, but how have you chosen to love someone today? Let's say you believe God is fair and just, have you been fair and just with all your dealings with companies and others.

Dear Lord, let us never forget that to follow you means to do your will. Let us pray for when we forget and may we find forgiveness in your care. Let us stay on the path back home to you as laid out though your Son. For peace in Ukraine. I pray you remember that of course may the word of Jesus at the Ascension, resound in your heart and lips, "remember I am with you always till the end of days. Amen. In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.
