DAILY REFLECTION

Dear God, we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is part of the Treaty Lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. We acknowledge and express gratitude to the Mississauga's of the Credit First Nation of the Anishinaabek Peoples who continue to share their ancestral lands with us.

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

A reading from Letter of Paul to the Ephesians

"I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God."

How many have you prayed for a good mark before writing a test? How about making a team or getting a part? How many have prayed for peace in their hearts, family, and in their relationships? At one time, we will pray for a variety of things, hoping that God will answer our prayers. But, St. Paul prays for something different.

St. Paul, like I try do, is pray for our community. What do I ask God for? For each of you to know God and the fullness of His love for you. To understand that God made you in such a unique way to be yourself and are loved exactly the way God wanted you to be. Then, when that occurs, you will treat each other with the utmost patience and kindness because you trust that God loves you. We will go out of our way to share that with others and outdo each other so everyone feels like they belong and can live to do good by each other.

May those who forget and distrust that God loves them, find true peace and self knowledge stems from one's relationship with God. Never fear to be yourself and may you come to know God's love for you, as the fuel you need to live out your life's purpose. For peace in Ukraine. I pray you remember that of course may the word of Jesus at the Ascension, resound in your heart and lips, "remember I am with you always till the end of days. Amen. In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.
