DAILY REFLECTION

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

A reading from the Book of Psalms

"O Lord, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your holy hill?...Those who stand by their oath even to their hurt, who do not lend money at interest, and do not take a bribe against the innocent. Those who do these things shall never be moved."

What defines a strong friendship? For a moment, think of your current friendships and ask yourself the following questions: Does your friend make a promise and keep it even if others may ridicule them? Does your friend lend you money or things and accept repayment on par? Does your friend remain true to you and your friendship online? These are good questions to ask to check if you are building and or have a strong friendship.

In our relationship with God, the same holds true for us. Do we make a promise to God, such as saying your prayers and doing good works, even when others may make fun of us for our faith? Do we lend people money asking for extra in return, forgetting that God has blessed us with everything we need to even share with other? Do we remain faithful to God and His existence when there are many more ways to deny Him in our lives? If you keep your word detached from being a slave to things, such as your phone and ideologies of the world, your faith and relationship with God is strong and will help you weather any storm.

Let us pray that in our personal and relationship with God, we may be faithful with always the intent to love without ceasing. For those who are in unhealthy relationships and friendships, may you find the courage and strength needed to free yourself from it, and find that your relationship with God will lead you to those who will care for and support you. For peace in Ukraine. I pray that as you live you this day, to remember Jesus' words at the Ascension, "I am with you always." Amen. In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.
