Remote Only Learning

Parents/guardians who wish to have their child(ren) learn in the remote-only learning mode will be required to commit to this learning mode for the entire 2021-2022 school year. There will be no options to switch to in-person learning at any point in the school year if you select this option.

Hybrid Learning

In 2021-2022, unless otherwise directed by the Ministry or our local public health units, we will begin the year with in-person only learning mode of the Hybrid model.

The remote component of the Hybrid learning model will be reserved for use only if COVID-19 requires a switch to remote learning in specific instances in an individual, class or school-wide setting as directed by our regional public health units.

- Physical Distancing / Masks / Cohorting will be in place
- Parent Survey will be sent out in August asking parents to choose either Remote or Hybrid Learning for the 2021-2022 school year.

Thank you Ewelina Kostuch and Coleen Isabella for your numerous contributions to our Catholic School Council.

Thank you for sharing your gifts and talents with our school community and for everything you have done to enhance the lives of the students at our school.

You will be missed!
