The First Nations, Métis and Inuit Peoples – Understanding Traditional Teachings, Histories, Current Issues and Cultures, Part I Additional Qualification course (Summer 2019)

Face to Face Blended Course

The First Nations, Métis and Inuit Peoples – Understanding Traditional Teachings, Histories, Current Issues and Cultures, Part I Additional Qualification course is designed to enhance professional knowledge and practice related to teaching and learning across the divisions. Part I was developed collaboratively with the leadership of First Nations, Métis and Inuit Knowledge Keepers, community members and educators and will also be co-facilitators of the course.

This summer course will include a “land-based” learning component. Participants will be invited to spend 3 days overnight (with the option of driving back and forth) at 5 Oaks Retreat Centre in Paris, ON. This will allow for a deeper experience through an outdoor setting to appreciate the ways in which Indigenous knowledge is derived and passed on. All meals will be provided. To view the location and accommodations please see: <http://www.fiveoaks.on.ca/>
