MESSAGE TO SECONDARY FAMILIES: QUADMESTER 2 TRANSITION DAY

Dear Parents/Guardians:

As you are aware, Quadmester 2 will begin on Friday, November 13.

This day will be a transition day for teachers and students where students will stay home with the exception of students in the Planning for Independence Program who will attend school as usual.

Teachers will be sharing their course profiles through their Learning Management Systems (i.e., Google Classroom, Brightspace D2L, etc.).

All students will be required to login to their Learning Management System from home to review the course profile.

In person learning will resume on Monday, November 16 for students in Cohort A.

Students in Cohort B and students who have chosen remote only learning will also attend their class from home on Monday, November 16.

More information regarding timetables and courses will be communicated through your local school.
