Greetings to the Goetz Community,

As the weather continues to get colder and the days shorter, the physical and emotional demands on us become more significant. It is important to remember that though we cannot control the forces of nature and the actions and decisions of others, we CAN control our reaction to those things. While that kind of resilience can be challenging, when we realize that we have each other to count on and God to support us, we are that much closer to thriving in these challenging times. Being a part of a strong, kind and enduring faith community like Father Michael Goetz gives us the strength we need to do so. Stay strong Gators and pray for each other! Christmas is coming 😊.

ADVENT BEGINS!!

We are presented with an invitation! To receive and accept Jesus in our hearts and to follow his call to prepare for his coming. In the midst of a world that is filled with glitter and entertainment we are invited to quiet our hearts to hear God's call as to how we need to prepare. As we prepare for Jesus' arrival during Advent and celebrate his birth may our hearts be well prepared to receive him through prayer and also by opening our hearts to help the least of our sisters and brothers who need our generous assistance. As we open our hearts to others we are in fact opening our hearts to Jesus. Your generosity over these two weeks are greatly appreciated. Consider donating through SchoolCashOnline – 'CHRISTMAS BASKETS DRIVE – GOETZ'. May God bless your generous hearts during this Advent season!
