Greetings to the Goetz Community,

As we pause to celebrate the birth of Christ and to spend time with family and friends, I am reminded what an important time of year this is for all of us. Not only is it a time of rest, relaxation and joyful celebration; it is a time of hope. The old history teacher in me can't help point out that Jesus was very likely born in the spring when the Roman census took place. Why then do we celebrate his birth in the dark of December? We celebrate now because of the very fact that it is the darkest time of the year. When we are in darkness, both physical and metaphorical, sometimes the only thing that gets us through is that we know the light will come. That is what Christmas is; a celebration of the coming of the light. Let us celebrate, rest and rejuvenate and rediscover hope. Merry Christmas Gators, thank-you for the joyous celebration over the last week and we look forward to coming together refreshed and renewed in the new year!
