Greetings to the Goetz Community,

Let me begin this week's message by congratulating our three Catholic School Trustees (Bruno Iannicca, Luz del Rosario and Stefano Pascucci) on their re-election. We look forward to continuing to work with these champions of Catholic Education.

As we continue through this busy year, there have been so many things to be thankful for! I would especially like to thank the staff and students who participating in our very successful Grade Open House last Thursday. The Gator spirit was certainly in evidence as prospective students toured our beautiful building and visited displays and activities. So much to be proud of! Have a great week everyone! Ms. Coccimiglia

A Message from Our Chaplaincy Leader...

This week the Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of All Saints on November 1 and the Feast of All Souls on November 2. On both these days, we remember and look upon all the holy women and men that have gone before us demonstrating and witnessing God's love, compassion, and mercy. We also give thanks to the many Saints in our lives today. This includes our spouses, children, teachers, mentors, spiritual leaders, etc. In a world where we are surrounded daily by violence, hatred, power, and ignorance, we sometimes forget the Grace that abounds and surrounds us at the same time by these very people. On both the feasts of All Saints and All Souls, we are reminded by Pope Francis that we are all called to holiness; that we are blessed as proclaimed to us in the Gospel of Matthew from Jesus Himself, that we are all Saints. We are called to love, to serve, to be present! This is the true call to Sainthood, and this week we mark this remembering not only those who the Church has proclaimed to sainthood, but all of us who daily desire to bring about a world of authentic love, acceptance, and compassion.
