Principal's Report

- Thanks provided to Council for their support throughout the school year
- June 5 - Virtue assembly for May
- June 23 - Virtue assembly for June
- All students have received their sacraments - school celebrations on June 5th
- Extracurriculars: volleyball, softball, track and field - withdrew from soccer due to conflict with graduation trip
- Field trips for all students over the next 3 weeks
- June 22 - Play Day confirmed
- Grade 8 transition meetings have been completed - one remaining for the school year
- Grade 8 - Dave and Buster's on June 16 and bowling trip
- New smartboards have arrived and installed in two classrooms - this was expensive, however it would be preferable for each student to have their own device
- Grade 4 FI students - St. Teresa of Avila walk on June 14th
- Plant Department approved for the widening of the school path in the field which will enable snow removal next winter; complaints regarding the kindergarten path and this was also reviewed, however it is unclear if this is city or school property
